THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

GOD'S LAWS

God's laws are not intended to burden or torment us. Instead they are guideposts that point us in the direction of good living. Accordingly, good living requires loving God and loving one another. We should not follow God's laws out of fear of what might happen if we don't, but rather view them as a foundation for building relationships and trust with one another and with God.

The Shema prayer of Orthodox Jews is based on the reading from Deuteronomy today, "Hear, O Israel." Every morning people recite the prayer as a profession of their love for God and pledge their obedience to God throughout the day. They pass on their love of God to their children, from one generation to the next.

We pray for and thank our Altar Servers who will be receiving Recognition Certificates this weekend, November 4th. We thank you for your time and dedication in serving Jesus on the Altar. God Bless you!

*You shall love the LORD, your God,
with all your heart,
and with all your soul,
and with all your strength.
— Deuteronomy 6:5*

Next weekend there will be a second collection for St. Patrick Seminary. Please be generous to our brothers who are preparing for their life in the priesthood.

STEWARDSHIP
OCT. 28 $4,574

In order to meet the budget for the year, on average, the weekly collection for St. Mark needs to be $5,800

NEXT WEEK'S READINGS

First Reading — The widow of Zarephath had only a handful of flour and a little oil, but made a little cake for Elijah (1 Kings 17:10-16).

Psalm — Praise the Lord, my soul!
(Psalm 146).

Second Reading — Christ will appear a second time to bring salvation to those who eagerly await him (Hebrews 9:24-28).

Gospel — This poor widow put in more than all the other contributors (Mark 12:38-44 [41-44]).
