FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

GOD'S SUMMONS

Confronted with God's power and majesty, the first response of the prophet Isaiah was to acknowledge his sinfulness. "Woe is me, I am doomed! For I am a man of unclean lips," he said aloud. Likewise, with his empty fishing nets dramatically filled at Jesus' instruction, Peter fell to his knees and cried out, "Depart from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man."

Next, Peter got up. He docked his boats then left to follow Jesus. Isaiah also had a dramatic change of heart. When he heard the Lord say, "Whom shall I send? Who will go for us?" Isaiah answered, "Here I am, send me."

We are summoned daily by the Risen Lord. We are reminded of the saving power of the gospel and know in our heart of hearts that, as St. Paul wrote, believing in anything else won't lead to anything.

What will it take for you to move past your sinfulness? What will it take for you to get off your knees? What will it take for you to bring to dock what is unimportant and to accept your call to be God's messenger? Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Archdiocese of San Francisco, Office of Human life and Dignity And Catholic Charities

The Archdiocese of San Francisco, Office of Human Life & Dignity, has teamed up with Catholic Charities to participate in the Catholic Accompaniment and Reflection Experience program (CARE).

We're looking for good Catholics who would like to serve as mentors to unaccompanied minors who are mostly from Latin America.

These kids need help with very mundane things like opening bank accounts, getting driven to sports practices and court hearings, and often just being a listening ear while they go through challenging times.

To learn more, or to apply to be a mentor please email fordm@sfarch.org or visit sfarch.org care
