TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

HOW GOD INTENDS US TO LIVE

Today's readings are again directed to believers, communities of faith. As in last week's reading, Amos confronts us with a condemnation of those whose lives are focused on pleasure and self-absorption. The psalm contrasts that focus with the Lord's—justice for the oppressed; food the hungry; freedom for captives; sight to the blind; raising of those who are bowed down; loving the just; protecting strangers, orphans, and the widow; and by doing so, thwarting the way of the wicked. Timothy urges the pursuit of righteousness, devotion, faith, love, patience, and gentleness. Luke tells the familiar tale of the wealthy man and the poor beggar at his doorstep, who experience life very differently in this world and in the next. We are once again being given clear indications about how God intends for us to live our lives. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

“Red Mass” for the Legal Profession with Archbishop Cordileone Thursday, October 17, 5:30 pm Sts. Peter and Paul Church, 666 Filbert St., San Francisco stthomasmore-sf.org/the-red-mass Archbishop Salvatore Cordileone will be celebrant and Archbishop Bernard Hebda of St. Paul-Minneapolis will be homilist at the annual Red Mass sponsored by the St. Thomas More Society of San Francisco. All are welcome to attend. A reception and dinner will follow Mass, and the Thomas More Award for 2019 will be presented to Alameda Superior Court Judge Jeffrey Brand. Information, and tickets for the dinner and reception, are at the website, above. The Red Mass is a seven-century-old tradition of prayer, seeking the guidance of the Holy Spirit for those in the legal professions and all those who seek justice. The St. Thomas More Society of San Francisco, founded in 1937, is the oldest fellowship of Catholic lawyers and judges in the West, and is named for the 16th century lawyer, judge, diplomat, Chancellor of England, martyr, and saint.

“White Mass” for the Medical Profession with Archbishop Cordileone Friday, October 18, 6:00 pm Mater Dolorosa Church, 307 Willow Ave., South San Francisco Archbishop Salvatore J. Cordileone invites all faithful to attend a Mass invoking the Holy Spirit to provide guidance and protection to all medical professionals including doctors, nurses, caregivers, and others. After Mass, the Archbishop will also impart a special apostolic blessing to all medical professionals in attendance. The Archdiocese will then host a special reception afterwards honoring all medical professionals. The reception is free of charge, and there is free parking as well.
