*Come, let us bow down in worship;
let us kneel before the LORD who made us.
— Psalm 95:6*

A LITTLE FAITH

Today our readings are about faith, frustration, and how much is enough. Habakkuk is a complainer having an argument with God. Timothy is encouraging a community challenged by cowardice and the apostles want more faith than they have. Things aren't happening fast enough for any of them or for us. All of them and we want God to do something sooner rather than later and we want God to give us a reason to believe that it will all work out. What does God do? God puts it back on them—and us—telling Habakkuk to describe the world he wants; telling the apostles to do more than the expected. Doing more with less is a familiar phrase today and a reminder that a little faith may be enough even for the most difficult times.

“White Mass”

For the Medical Profession with Archbishop Cordileone Friday, October 18, 6:00 pm Mater Dolorosa Church, 307 Willow Ave., South San Francisco Archbishop Salvatore J. Cordileone invites all faithful to attend a Mass invoking the Holy Spirit to provide guidance and protection to all medical professionals including doctors, nurses, caregivers, and others. After Mass, the Archbishop will also impart a special apostolic blessing to all medical professionals in attendance. The Archdiocese will then host a special reception afterwards honoring all medical professionals. The reception is free of charge, and there is free parking as well.

St. John XXIII

St. Mark has a book for your special intentions, which is located on the table as you enter the main doors of the church.

We encourage you to write your special intentions, for yourself or others in this book.

After the Homily the book is carried up and placed on the Altar. Your intentions are silently included in each mass.
